Extra Credit Project #2

To receive extra credit points with this project, memorize as many verses below as you wish (the points awarded for each verse are in parentheses next to the verse). I have printed these using NASB; however, you are welcome to use whichever Bible version you are used to. In order to receive credit, you must quote each verse exactly word-for-word, with reference, twice – at least two weeks apart. Quote your verse to someone who will follow along and initial/date the box to the right of the verse when you have done it correctly. Turn this in, when you have completed as many as you wish, no later than May 21st.
